Last evening, during the rainstorm, Glenn's wharfbeat was blown from her moorings at foot of Union street. Mr. Glenn was preparing to move his boat to his new landing at foot of Jefferson street. He had just fluished taking in his stages and chains preparatory to the move, and was only hurried a few hours in his change. The two tugs and the ferriboat went to his relief and towed his boat to her new location, all in good order, no damage whatever being sustained. The accident would not have occurred but for his preparation to move. He had just left to procure the tug to move him when the storm came up.

AYRES BUILDING. MRS. SPEED and Mrs. SNEED, two ladies of experience, have secured a lease on the "AYRES BUILDING," opposite Court square, where the trees are in bloom and the beautiful fountain playing. Their rooms are large, well ventilated, and newly furnished; large halls, and six ways of escape; no danger from fire. They propose to keep a first-class boardinghouse for families and day-boarders. Regular meals will be furnished lawyers, merchants and gentlemen, and ladies visiting the city, at very low rates.

Notice to Delinquents.

THE delinquent list of State, County and Bailroad Taxes, from 1865 to 1875 inclusive, are in my hands for collection. In every case where a writ of possession is authorized, the same will be tssued and placed in the hands of the sheriff to be excuted. In cases where other steps are authorized, the same will be taken, and levies made in accordance with the following acts of the legislature, to which I respectfully call the attention of all parties intersetted: ACTS OF 1875, CHAPTER 103, SECTION 6. ACTS OF 1875, CHAPTER 103, SECTION 6.

"That said back tax-collector shall have all the powers to enforce collections of said unpaid taxes that were possessed by the various revenue collectors of the State on the first day of January, 1875, and his right to levy or distrain and sell personal or real property belonging to delinquent tax payers, shall exist so long as such taxes remain unpaid."

In order to avoid annoyance and additional cests, parties should see that there are no delinquent taxes against them or their property, as in many cases I can only give notice to property owners through their tenants. I respectfully ask all persons desiring to arrange and seitle their taxes to call on me before the writs are placed in the hands of the sheriff.

Respectfully, C. WEATHERFORD, State and County Agent and Back Tax-Collector.
